Celebrating 118 years of girls in sport

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are advised that this content contains the name and artwork of the late Leah Cummins.

We proudly acknowledge and celebrate Leah Cummins' enduring contribution to QGSSSA through this artwork, which reflects connection, community, belonging and the journey of young women in sport. Through her storytelling, Leah captured the spirit of our schools, the importance of First Nations lands and peoples, and the hopes, dreams and futures of the young women represented within QGSSSA. We honour Leah's legacy through this artwork

We respectfully acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of the Land on which we gather.

We honour their enduring connection to Country – to the land, waterways, skies and stories that have been cared for over countless generations. We recognise the strength, wisdom and continuing contributions of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to communities, culture and sport across Australia.

The QGSSSA is committed to fostering environments where respect, inclusion and understanding are valued and where young people are encouraged to learn from one another and walk together in the spirit of reconciliation. Through sport, we celebrate the power of connection, shared experiences and unity across our school communities.

May today's championships be conducted with courage, integrity and respect for one another and for the rich cultural heritage of this land.

We pay our deepest respects to Elders past and present and extend that respect to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples with us today.
